

Presented by the Graduate School

Training in the Responsible Conduct of Research for Graduate Students

A meal will be provided following each session.

Sessions will be held in the Reynolds Center Auditorium
(located behind the Walton College of Business Building)

Session 1 Wednesday, September 16, 2009, 3:30 – 5:00 pm

Introduction to Research Ethics

Presenter: Dr. Dennis Brewer, Associate Vice Provost for Research

Session 2 Wednesday, October 21, 2009, 3:30 – 5:00 pm

Authorship and Publication Issues

Presenter: Dr. Doug Adams, Associate Professor of Sociology

Session 3 Wednesday, November 11, 2009, 3:30 – 5:00 pm

Research Misconduct: Policies and Consequences

Presenter: Rosemary Ruff, Director, Office of Research Support and Sponsored Programs

Students who attend all three sessions will receive a certificate of training in the Responsible Conduct of Research.

We plan to repeat these sessions each fall. They are particularly intended for new graduate students, but all graduate students are welcome.

Please register your attendance with Diane Cook, 575-2350 or DLCOOK@uark.edu
