CITATION RESOURCES

for UARK Graduate Students

This Citation Resources guide is an excellent go-to for information on:

Citation Managers | 1

Citation Styles | 2-6

Plagiarism & Reputable Source Info | 7-8

Helpful UARK Offices | 9

Citation Managers

WAYS TO ORGANIZE YOUR RESEARCH

UARK Libraries works with 3 different citation managers, Mendeley, Zotero, and Endnote, and has specialists that work with each platform. UARK Libraries also provides resources for each citation manager, navigating how to get familiar with and use each resource. Click on the links before for more information:

Check out this Comparison Chart to compare the features between each citation manager and decide which is the best fit for you and your research.

Zotero

- Free with option of purchasing additional storage
- Requires installation on compute for full features
- Zotero Resource Guide

EndNote

- Free version available through UARK Libraries
- Associated with Web of Science
- EndNote Resource
   Guide

Mendeley

- Free with option of purchasing additional storage
- Integrates with ScienceDirect
- Features academic social network
- Mendeley Resource Guide

Main Citation Styles

1. APA Style

Social Sciences - Business - Behavioral Sciences

UARK Library Resources:

- APA Style Resource Guide on an overview of APA style basics
- APA Style Examples
- Subject Librarians

Purdue OWL Resources:

- APA Style Introduction that gives you a place to start with learning APA style
- APA Poster that has the basics of APA compiled visually
- APA Sample Papers with a student and professional paper example

APA Official Site Resources:

- APA provides specific guidance on how to use APA format in text
- APA Style Reference Guide
   Diagram that provides a quick reference on how to cite published works

Excelsior OWL Resources

- APA Checklist to check off a list of items required to style your paper in APA format
- APA Sample Papers to view different kinds of papers to use as guides for APA style

Main Citation Styles

2. MLA Style

Language Arts - Humanities - Liberal Arts

UARK Library Resources:

- MLA Style Resource Guide for an overview of MLA style
- Subject Librarians

Excelsior OWL Resources:

- Interactive MLA Formatting Guide to make sure you have the required items to style your paper in MLA format
- MLA Sample Papers to view different kinds of papers to use as guides for MLA format

MLA Website Resources:

 The MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers is a guide for MLA format and can be checked out via the University of Arkansas library

Purdue OWL Resources:

- MLA Style Introduction that gives you a place to start with MLA style
- MLA Classroom-style Poster
- MLA Sample Papers

Main Citation Styles

2. Chicago Style

History - Business - Fine Arts

UARK Libraries Resources:	Excelsior OWL Resources:
• Chicago Style Resource Guide for an overview of Chicago style	• Chicago Formatting Guidelines
<ul> <li>Chicago Style Examples</li> <li>Chicago Manual of Style book, available for free access through the library</li> </ul>	• Chicago Notes and Bibliography
• Subject Librarians
Chicago Manual of Style Website Resources :	Purdue OWL Resources:
<ul> <li>Website Resources :</li> <li>Guidance on the specifics of</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Purdue OWL Resources:</li> <li>Chicago Manual of Style (CMOS) Introduction</li> </ul>
Website Resources :	Chicago Manual of Style

4

Other Citation Styles

4. IEEE Style

Engineering - Computer Science - Information Technology

IEEE Website Resources:

• The IEEE Reference Guide is a detailed resource to citing in IEEE style

UARK Library Resources

- IEEE Style Resource Guide
- Subject Librarians

Purdue OWL Resources:

IEEE Overview to get acquainted with IEEE style

5. AMA Style

Medical Sciences

AMA Website Resources:

• An AMA Guide for Authors and Editors on AMA formatting

Purdue OWL Resources

AMA Style Introduction

Other Citation Styles

6. ASA Style

Sociology

ASA Website Resources:

• Quick Tips PDF Guide for citing and referencing sources

Purdue OWL Resources:

 ASA Style Manuscript Formatting webpage, along with other information about in-text citation references, reference page formatting, and writing in manuscript writing style

Every graduate student can be helped by their own subject librarian, who works with UARK Libraries and can help you find access to academic sources, materials, and more.

Find your subject librarian according to your discipline.

Avoiding Plagiarism

CREATING CREDIBLE & QUALITY WORK

1. Turnitin.com

- Turnitin.com is dedicated to helping students identify potential plagiarism and double check written work before submission
- Students can submit their papers and Turnitin will review their work and verify its originality
- The U of A provides graduate students with access to a free account to Turnitin; find instructions on how to sign up here

2. The Office of Academic Initiatives & Integrity

- UARK Academic Integrity Policy and Academic Integrity Sanction Rubric
- Academic Integrity Process
   Common Academic Violations
   Student FAQs
- Need to reach this office? Email honesty@uark.edu or call (479)-575-5229

Avoiding Plagiarism

CREATING CREDIBLE & QUALITY WORK

3. Other Resources

UARK Library Resources

- Academic Integrity Guide
- Copyright and Fair Use
- Intellectual Properties in Engineering
- Plagiarism

Excelsior OWL Resources

- Check Your Understanding of Plagiarisminteractive quiz
- Avoiding Plagiarism Tutorial to understand and identify the seven types of plagiarism that can occur

Purdue OWL Resources

- Best Practices for Writers which details practices that can help you avoid plagiarizing or copying published work
- "Should I Cite This" Poster that serves as a useful reference for knowing when to cite written work
- Plagiarism Exercise to test your knowledge of when and where to cite
- Common Knowledge and
   Attribution Guide that describes what common knowledge is and how to distinguish it from work that needs to be cited

UARK Offices

1. Writing Studio

- Virtual consultations with graduate consultants or virtual chat via the "Drop In" feature
- Writing resource webpages that feature information and examples of citation styles and formatting for papers
- Writing workshops
- Writing groups to collaborate with other students in the writing process
- Graduate consultants specialized in different fields of study
- Need to contact the Writing Studio? Email uawrite@uark.edu

2. Thesis & Dissertation Office

- This Thesis and Dissertation Guide gives an overview of the requirements needed to properly format and style your thesis/dissertation
- Need to reach this office? Email them at gradtad@uark.edu or call (479)-575-4401

3. Office of Graduate Student Support

- We can support you by directing you towards resources you can utilize as a grad student
- Check out our Student Resources page for info to a variety of resources
- Need to reach this office? Email us at gradsupport@uark.edu or call (479)-575-7038